Press release on Wicked/TDM Exclusive Partnership

September 9, 2006

Trans Digital Media LLC (TDM) and Wicked Pictures (Wicked) announced today that an agreement has been reached whereby Wicked has appointed TDM as its exclusive U.S. distributor of their motion pictures for cable and satellite T.V. The companies also have an exclusive worldwide arrangement to create and distribute Pay-Per-View events together. Both agreements will commence on October 1, 2006.

TDM currently offers VOD and Pay-per-view programming under its Playgirl and High Society brands to Cable TV and Satellite operators. Wicked produces adult oriented motion pictures, which are distributed worldwide through a network of hard goods and broadband distributors. Prior to this agreement with TDM, Wicked motion pictures were distributed on television under a long term exclusive agreement with Playboy Inc.

"We look forward to a long and successful partnership with Wicked," said Geoffrey D. Lurie, CEO of TDM. "Our company has enjoyed rapid growth since inception two years ago and the addition of the Wicked product line to our offerings, under the Wicked brand which the viewing public recognize as a leader in the field will be a major addition for us."

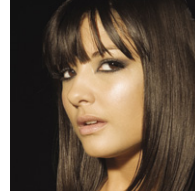

Wicked and TDM will co-produce several programs for viewing on Pay-Per-View. These programs will offer exciting events and reality type programming.

Steven Orenstein, President of Wicked, said " We've already experienced great success with TDM distributing catalog titles of ours to the cable operators. We can't wait to see what they'll do now that they have our new releases also. "

jessica drake and Carmen Hart take center stage in New Zealand

LOS ANGELES, CA / AUCKLAND, NZ - (September 1, 2006 DMPR) - New Zealand-based Erotica - Lifestyles director Steve Crow has traditionally promoted the annual expo with his festive Boobs On Bikes parade down Auckland's Queen Street. Although this event has brought out up to 20,000 onlookers in previous years, no one was quite prepared for the massive controversy that exploded this past week, when upwards of 100,000 people turned out to watch motorcycles and tanks carrying topless adult stars move slowly down the sprawling, four-lane avenue (particularly impressive given that Auckland's entire population is estimated at just 1.3 million). The stunning public display, which received international coverage via Reuters, the AP, and many other news and entertainment services, triggered a debate in New Zealand's national media, fueled heated arguments on radio and television, and even inspired political cartoons. And caught in the apex of the crossfire were Wicked Pictures very own contract megastars jessica drake and Carmen Hart, in town to appear at the expo and support their company's new Vixen distribution deal.

"I've participated in this event before, including the first year I was with Wicked," jessica reflected on her time in the national spotlight, which found her and Carmen profiled by such respected media outlets as The New Zealand Herald, Sky TV, John Campbell Live, MSNBC, C4, SKY TV, Breakfast (TV), and many others. "Nothing had prepared me for a turnout of this magnitude. From the very moment we arrived in the country, Carmen and I were doing mainstream radio, television, and print interviews, and many concerned the debate over the propriety of the Boobs On Bikes parade. For me, it wasn't about being adult stars or sex workers. It was a celebration of self-expression, and I encouraged all the women of Auckland to join us!"

For the exotic Carmen, the entire New Zealand adventure was something she won't soon forget. "It was an amazing experience! Even though there was a lot of controversy, over 100,000 people came out to support us, and that meant the world to me. jessica and I both saw the event as an opportunity for self-expression, and we celebrated every aspect of it. I feel very fortunate to have participated, and I look forward to going back next year!"

During the event, Queen Street's overflow crowd was estimated by the media as exceeding even the thousands that attend the city's Christmas parade every year.

But while such a reception could quickly inflate the egos of many, for level-headed jessica (who's currently featured in a pictorial on the New Zealand Herald's official website) the Auckland sojourn carried a specific agenda. "I feel very grateful to have been able to go on this trip to support Wicked's new distribution deal with [New Zealand/Australian distributor] Vixen, and to meet our fans there. Also, this was Carmen's first time out of the country, and I relished the chance to break her in to the way we do business in the international arena."

Boobs On Bikes kicked off Erotica - Lifestyles 2006, acclaimed far and near as "The Most Talked About Public Expo New Zealand Has Ever Seen." The show, which took place August 25th, 26th, and 27th at the ASB Showgrounds in Auckland, featured erotic displays and exhibits from all over the world.

For Rockers, Ravers, Lovers & Sinners:

WICKED PICTURES & VIRGIN MEGASTORE Create A Historic Advertising Campaign

LOS ANGELES, CA / NEW YORK, NY -- (MAY 5, 2006 DMPR) -- In an adult industry first, Canoga Park-based WICKED PICTURES is pleased to announce that it is teaming up with retail giant VIRGIN MEGASTORE to bring in-store video advertising of their acclaimed films and exclusive contract stars to all 17 domestic Virgin retail locations. Additional outdoor LED advertising of their brand is also being featured at the entertainment giant's flagship Hollywood & Highland, CA and Times Square, NY locations.

The current video campaign, which runs through May 18th, 2006, features images appropriate for all ages of the WICKED GIRLS and advertising for the new Wicked titles WATCHING SAMANTHA starring STORMY DANIELS, CURSE ETERNAL featuring JESSICA DRAKE, COUNTRY STYLE with KIRSTEN PRICE, and the CARMEN HART vehicle RENDEZVOUS.

After May 18th, a second video campaign will begin featuring CURSE ETERNAL as well such other new Wicked titles as Stormy Daniels' THREE WISHES, DUALITY starring Kirsten Price, and HONKY TONK GIRL with Carmen Hart.

The exposure the company will be getting on the electronic billboards of Virgin's two most celebrated U.S. locations is creating countless new viewer impressions, as the Hollywood & Highland Megastore, at the heart of the world's motion picture capital, has a truly premier location situated between the Kodak Theater and the Grauman's Chinese Theater. With its sophisticated image, beautiful contract superstars, and critically acclaimed DVDs, Wicked Pictures is a unique contributor to Virgin Hollywood & Highland's unparalleled selection of entertainment and lifestyle products.

Even better for Wicked in terms of sheer promotional value, the Times Square Virgin Megastore is not only one of New York's biggest attractions, it's also the largest entertainment store in the world! Often host to impromptu appearances from the many rockers, ravers, lovers & sinners appearing on MTV's TOTAL REQUEST LIVE (filmed directly across the street), the Times Square Megastore enjoyed hosting the first-ever instore appearances of Michael Jackson and Nine Inch Nails this past year, plus many other great events with acts like Eminem, 'NSync, and even the Wicked Girls themselves, who took a bite out of the Big Apple with a now-legendary signing at this location two years ago.

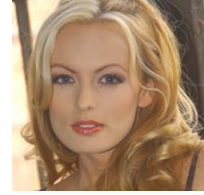

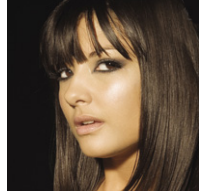

Obviously pleased to see his company so closely aligned with one of the global economy's top retailers, Wicked Pictures President & Owner STEVE ORENSTEIN enthuses, "it's a great opportunity to advertise at the Virgin locations, and we're very happy to be the first adult company to do so."

So stop by your local Virgin retailer today and enjoy the show while picking up your favorite new releases from the friendly and knowledgeable staff. Because each Megastore is truly unique, unmistakably Virgin, and now, officially WICKED.

The Red Carpet and Beyond:
Wicked Girls Mainstream Takeover!
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: MARCH 16, 2006

Los Angeles, CA--After two Wicked weeks of mainstream media blitzes and attending some of Hollywood's high profile red carpet events the Wicked Girls aren't quite through in fact, they're just getting started!

Oscar night proved to be brighter than usual as Wicked Girls Jessica Drake, Carmen Hart and Kirsten Price dazzled mainstream press on the red carpet, at the 17th Annual Night Of 100 Stars Gala. When they weren't spoiling the press with extensive on camera interviews and turning on the star power for photographers on hand, the girls rubbed elbows with some of Hollywood's most notable actors, actresses and star athletes.

Oscar night also found AVN's 2006 award-winning Supporting Actress Stormy Daniels at the Kodak Theatre doing some of her own media dazzling at the Oscars ceremony, turning heads as she graced the red carpet. After the awards ceremony the 40-year old-virgin fantasy vixen connected with celebrities and danced the night away at the Rolling Stone/US Weekly awards after party.

Oscar week continued to be a very busy week for Wicked Girls Stormy Daniels and Carmen Hart who hit the Vibe Magazine party, where they posed for bevy of photos and partied with fans and celebs alike until the crack of dawn.

Continuing the Wicked Girls mainstream take over, Stormy hit Las Vegas last week where she was not only the honored guest but host of a nightclub party at Tao Nightclub that featured a rare live performance by rap artist Busta Rhymes. While this past week saw Carmen making a splash at the Show Magazine launch party at Vine Street Lounge on the red carpet before heading inside to party with some of LA's top models and elite photographers.

This week, fans and press had the opportunity to join Kirsten Price in Las Vegas where she appeared at prominent magazine Strip Las Vegas March Madness Party to promote the magazine, which features Price as the April issue cover girl.

So, keep your eyes open, you never know where the Wicked Girls will turn up next!

Wicked Girl Steals The Spotlight On FX's Controversial New Show!

Dateline: January 5, 2007

Los Angeles, CA -- (January 5, 2006 DMPR) -- Fresh from her scene-stealing appearance Tuesday night on FX's controversial new Courteney Cox series Dirt, multiple 2007 AVN award nominee and Wicked Pictures crossover celebrity Stormy Daniels is basking in the afterglow of positive mainstream press that's citing her controversial scene with ex-NBA star Rick Fox as one of the keys to the new show's early success.

Marc Malkin of E! Online's Planet Gossip is quick to celebrate both Stormy's professionalism and popularity in the mainstream, noting that "not only has Daniels made a whopping 45 adult movies, she's directed 10 of them. Fans of 'The 40-Year-Old Virgin' may remember her as the blond, well, porn star in a scene in which Steve Carell pleases himself. Still can't remember her? She's on the cover of the new issue of Penthouse this month."

On her much-talked about on-screen tryst with Rick Fox, Malkin observes that "Daniels, a 27-year-old Louisiana native, tells me she was impressed with Fox. He was so comfortable with their hot-tub romp, he did the scene completely in the buff. 'I thought he'd be wearing something, but he dropped his robe, and I was like, 'Oh, so nice to meet all of you,' ' Daniels says. 'I would be more than happy to cast him in one of my movies.'"

About Wicked Pictures

Founded March 1, 1993, acclaimed adult industry powerhouse Wicked Pictures, creates quality adult features for women and couples.

Wicked Pictures' elite team of contract talent includes Brad Armstrong, Jonathan Morgan, Michael Raven, David Stanley, writer-director-star Stormy Daniels, actor-director Randy Spears, videographer/director Francois Clousot, and acclaimed actresses as Julia Ann, Jessica Drake, Kaylani Lei, Kirsten Price, and Carmen Hart.

AVN's coveted BEST ACTRESS award has gone to a Wicked Girl each year from 2000 to 2004, the longest unbroken record in the category to be held by a single company in adult video history.
